

All the items sold by Knightly Endeavors are designed, cut, assembled and finished by Jay Reeder, Owner. We strive to provide a fun and entertaining experience to every visitor to the faire. At the New York Renaissance Faire, we operate out of our booth. At the other festivals we attend, we use either a 20x20 Panther pavilion, or a 14x12 Panther pavilion. Our displays are wooden, with fabric covering for our work tables.

Queen of the faeries, Titania.

An ethereal vision of Love, Lust, and spritely fun, the Titania is available in Silk jacquard, Satin jacquard and standard jacquard. The sleeves may be a complimentary or contrasting color, and the trim may vary. Don't be afraid to tie the knot in this one as it brings a nice spring look to an outdoor ceremony.

Cloaks, Coats, and Robes!

The Pirate Skull Coat is based on a variation of our short pirate coat. It has embroidered silver and black (and black and silver) skulls on the cuffs, collar, and side panels. The coat is made with cotton velvet on the outside and lined with cotton twill on the inside. Also inside you will find two sizeable pockets, suitable for your favorite items of necessity. ### Women's Frocks or Overdresses

We offer frocks or overdresses in four different styles and several different fabrics. Our standard frock is lined with heavy cotton twill with boning on the front and sides. It combines some of the Irish and English dress styles from the 14th through 16th centuries. Depending on the fabrics used, you can be a lowly peasant girl, up through a baroness to a princess. This is available in heavy cotton twill, jacquard, or velvets.

Our Empress frock is based on the standard frock with the addition of detachable long flowing sleeves. Showing a higher level of nobility and status, this gown bestows a more regal look. Available in jacquard or velvets. Sizing XXS to XXL.

	Twill	Jacquard	Velvet
Standard	$110	$150	$225
Empress	n/a	$200	$300

The Charlotte

I was designing the clothing for my wedding in 2003 and ran across a problem. All of the bridesmaids were women, but two of my groomsfolk were women as well. I wanted the ladies on my side of the aisle to have a distinctive look to them, both feminine, but similar to the look of the other groomsfolk. The Charlotte is the result. A corseted doublet style top with detachable sleeves, a man's shirt and a matching skirt make up this outfit. Starting at $350 for the whole outfit or just $250 for the top, these are made of jacquards, tapestries, velvets, or leather. Pictured is a velvet and leather combination that sells for $450. Sizing XXS to XXL.

Women's

Corsets

Our corsets are a sweetheart design typically made to order. They are offered in jacquard, tapestry, leather, twill and pretty much anything else we can sew!

We offer them by themselves or as part of an outfit. Skirts run the gamut from tight pencil or mermaid skirts as shown on the left to large flowing princess skirts. The pricing for the corsets by themselves starts at $300 and meanders up from there depending on the fabric, fastenings and accessories. Don't be afraid to ask for whatever you may want, you just may get it!

Cloaks, Coats, and Robes!

Cloaks

These cloaks are very full, made with 7 yards of material. They have a large gothic hood & a pewter clasp. Sized in small, medium and large, custom sizing is available for $20 extra. Cotton Lining is $100 extra.

Cotton Twill	$95
Panne Velvet	$150
Melton Wool	$195
Jacquard	$200

I realize it isn't terribly piratical in this incarnation, but it can be made longer and with more embellishment. I hope to have more pictures up soon. As it is made here, it is a black wool outer, with a satinette bright red lining. The buttons are little jolly rogers! In this style it is available at $195. In a long coat style it is $250. Your choice of colors for the outside is black, burgundy, charcoal, green and midnight blue. For the inside we have black, blue, pink, teal, and red lining. We're still experimenting with this, so don't be afraid to offer suggestions.

Men's

Doublets

Our doublets are based on the same design, primarily from English roots with a little French influence thrown in. Our slash doublets are made from velvet or corduroy with velvet, brocade, or silk insets for the slashes. The V-doublet is made with velvet and either brocade or velvet as a contrast. Our quilted studded doublet is offered either in solid colors or as a V styling. These doublets are typically made to order, so don't be afraid to ask for something special. The closures are typically Norwegian pewter clasps of your selection, though we do button front and tied front doublets as well. Doublets start as low as $250 and progress up to $750 for the quilted studded model.

Vests

The men's vests are available in a variety of colors and fabrics. They also can be closed with grommets and lacing, or clasps, or just left open. There are several color and fabric choices available. From $75 to $150.
